Dear Mr. Livingston:

Thank you for your kind invitation for me to address the Commercial Club of Chicago at a luncheon meeting in March.

Much as I would like to be with your group, I deeply regret that it will not be possible for me to accept your invitation due to prior commitments. Your courtesy in inviting me is indeed appreciated.

Once again, many thanks and kindest regards.

Sincerely,

HOMER J. LIVINGSTON
PRESIDENT

December 20, 1957

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, NW
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

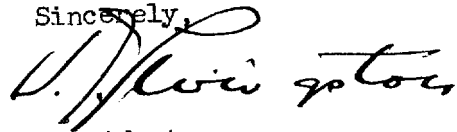

The Commercial Club of Chicago, whose membership is limited to the leading business, professional and academic men in the city, would be greatly pleased if you would address them at a luncheon meeting sometime in March.

The meeting would be off-the-record and limited to members of the Club and their guests. I am sure the membership would be receptive to any subject you might choose to discuss.

Any week day during the first three weeks of March would be agreeable as the Club would arrange its luncheon accordingly. The Club's customary honorarium is $500 and expenses.

I greatly hope your schedule will permit you to accept this invitation.

Sincerely,

President
(The Commercial Club of Chicago)
